Waivers/Conditions:

Antennas employed for mobile use over 6.1 meters may be deployed without specific prior approval of the Commission provided that the overall height of such antennas more than 6.10 meters (20 feet) above ground, including their supporting structures (whether natural formation or man-made), do not exceed any of the slope ratios set forth in Section 17.7(b).

Fixed BAS and Low Power Auxiliary Stations in the UHF TV band are licensed on a secondary basis to existing-and future-primary operations and cannot cause harmful interference to primary operations nor claim protection from harmful interference from primary operations.

Licensee must routinely provide audio services or hold events that require use of 50 or more wireless microphones.
