Re: BAXTER, GLENN A

Your application is in a dismissal status effective 06/23/2014 without prejudice in accordance with Section 1.934 of the Commission's Rules for the reason(s) indicated below. If you still wish to be licensed, you must file a new application, fee, FCC Form 159 for feeable applications, and all required showings. If you currently hold a valid license, you may continue to operate under the parameters of that authorization.

If you are currently operating under authority provided by the Commission's Rules based on your submission of the above referenced application, you must immediately cease operation until such time as you come into compliance with the Rules.

Certain services are subject to mandatory electronic filing pursuant to Section 1.913. For all other services, you may file your application either electronically or manually, but not both. Electronic filing is recommended for the few radio services where manual filing is permitted. For information on how to file an application electronically, visit the website at <http://wireless.fcc.gov/uls>. If you wish to file your application manually, application forms can be obtained from the FCC's website at <http://www.fcc.gov/formpage.html>, by calling the FCC's Forms Distribution Center 800-418-FORM (800-418-3676), or from FCC's Fax Information System by dialing (202) 418-0177. For additional assistance, you may visit the website at <http://esupport.fcc.gov>. You may also call the FCC at (877) 480-3201 (TTY 717-338-2824). To provide quality service and ensure security, all telephone calls are recorded.

Your application could not be processed because it was redlighted by the FCC's ULS system.

The Red Light Rule was adopted as part of the Federal Communication Commission's ongoing effort to implement the Debt Collection Improvement Act, which provides that the Commission check whether entities or individuals seeking licenses or other benefits from the FCC are delinquent in debt owed to the Commission.

Anyone filing an application or seeking a benefit that is found to be delinquent in debt owed to the FCC and who fails to pay the debt in full or make other satisfactory arrangements in a timely manner will have their application dismissed. Because you have failed to resolve this matter timely, your application is hereby dismissed.
