Re: FCC File Number 0008600055

Dear Mr. Mgrdichian:

In accordance with Section 1.113(a) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.113(a), the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau is hereby setting aside its action of April 30th, 2019, that granted file number 0008600055, under call sign N1FMM.

On April 5th, the Commission received your application, file number 0008591979, filed under call sign N2FUV requesting the vanity call sign of N1FMM, which stated that you were a close relative of the former holder. On April 11th, application number 0008591979 was returned with a request for additional information to substantiate your assertion of close relative of former holder preference.

On April 12th, the Commission received your application file number 0008600055, filed under call sign N2FUV requesting the vanity call sign of N1FMM as a preference list. This application was subsequently granted.

On May 22nd, the Commission's Enforcement Bureau requested that your application be set aside for enforcement review. Accordingly, the grant of file number 0008600055 is hereby set aside. Pending action by the Enforcement Bureau you may continue to operate using call sign N2FUV with General Class operating privileges.
